

Call for the granting of aid on a competitive basis to carry out projects relating to adaptation to climate change. 2019

Wysłane przez editor w pt., 20/09/2019 - 10:19

The activities should contribute to the development of the III Work Program of the National Plan for Adaptation to Climate Change (PNACC) and be applied research or generate innovation in its definition and development. The call will include activities related to impacts, vulnerability and adaptation measures, or those that integrate in a balanced way components of adaptation and mitigation of climate change, giving rise to complementarities and synergies between the two aspects. Under no circumstances will projects exclusively for mitigation be the object of aid.
